THE SHEPHERD'S STAFF

April 2011

Christ is Risen! Χριστός Ανέστη!

Beloved Family in Christ,

It seems unbelievable that our journey to Pascha is almost over. In but a few weeks we will hear the shouts of that most ancient Christian truth that "Christ is Risen!" Just as the light of our paschal candles will fill our churches with the true light of the resurrection of Christ, even so will our homes once again be filled with the laughter and parties that have been distinctly absent during Great Lent.

And because this fundamental proclamation of the Christian faith is so essential to our lives, it will be our common greeting to each other for the 40 days following the resurrection of our Lord. Wherever Orthodox Christians meet, our first words will not be in greeting each other as friends, but rather in sharing our common witness of God's plan of salvation for us: Christ is Risen! Truly He is Risen!

My beloved family in Christ, it is this cornerstone of our faith which makes all good things possible. Consider for a moment what life would be like if we lived in an eternal night – covered by the darkness of the world without the ability to see each other clearly as children of God. What would life be like if its ultimate purpose was death alone – and with no hope of the eternal joy

God has prepared for us with Him. What would happen if we could only allow ourselves to be subjected to the tempest tossed storm of life with no Guide to take us to the safe harbor of salvation.

The importance of the resurrection of Christ for us is truly in the eternal hope that it affirms for us: hope in Love for God and His mercy; hope in the reality of Love to right a fallen world; hope in the fact that we shall never be lost from those whom we love, but that one day again, we shall sit at table with God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Pascha is the sacred proclamation of the depth of God's love for us. And it is a love so deep and so wide that God Himself would send His Only-Begotten Son to earth in the form of a servant to lead us back to the Light from our wandering in hopelessness and isolation; and it is a love so precious that God would also send His Holy Spirit to encourage us to call out to Him as Father, and thus, to raise us from death to life.

May this blessed Pascha be for each of us a time of great joy and light. May our burdens be lessened, our hope increased, and our souls made light by Christ our Lord.

Extending to you and to your families my deepest prayers and hope that the Resurrected Christ will fill us with every joy, I remain,

Paternally,

+ Metropolitan Nicholas

By Barbara Minton

Our liturgies, vespers, sacraments, and the many other services of our Holy Orthodox Faith are chanted, sung, or intoned rather than spoken. The hymns are not songs; rather, they are prayers. "Music" is an integral part of our worship. Therefore, it is imperative that we recruit, encourage and train people to be the future chanters, choir directors, organists, singers, music arrangers, and teachers of hymnology.

Through the Memorial Scholarship Fund, the Mid-Eastern Federation of Greek Orthodox Church Musicians offers scholarships to those students who will study music or take music lessons. Our fervent hope is that these students will then offer their talents and knowledge to the Church.

The Memorial Scholarship Fund was established in memory of church musicians who have passed away. The Memorial Fund was started with Federation treasury monies that were budgeted each year.

A FISH TALE

By Fr. Nicholas Verdaris*

It is said that when a glass divider is placed into an aquarium so that fish can only swim in one half of the aquarium, the fish will bump into it only a few times before they “learn” that they are confined to one side of the aquarium. From then on, the glass divider can be removed, but the fish will continue to swim in only one half of the aquarium. The fish have been conditioned to limits that in fact do not exist. More like fish in an aquarium than most would care to admit, many people today choose to be bound to a ‘small world’ of their own creation, than embrace the limitless new life in Christ.

Case in point, researchers can project with a high degree of certainty that the average American will spend 32.9% or 23 years of their life sleeping, 11.4% or 8 years watching TV, 8.6 % or 6 years eating, 6.55% or 4.5 years in leisure activities, and 2.8% or 2 years getting dressed. The data also shows that the average man and woman will spend a mere 0.7% or half of one year on all things religious or spiritual.

This is the limited aquarium our society says we are in. And yet, these confines are no less a choice. We must decide whether we will be lemmings or instead embrace this Lenten season to pursue the new life in Christ. Because by His love and grace, we are in actuality free to live a transcendent life in Him. It may be said that we in fact live in an “aquarium” that with our Orthodox Christian faith in action, can be so much greater than what the secular world can possibly imagine or calculate. Great Lent is an opportunity for us to embrace the boundless Orthodox Christian way of life through a renewed commitment to prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Preparing for the feast of His Resurrection, we must not bind ourselves to parameters that give us a false sense of order at the expense of new life in Him.

We must be mindful of the fact that anything that inhibits the triumvirate of prayer, fasting and almsgiving is in reality hindering our ability to recognize the presence of God in our life, and the very real freedom that flows from Him. We must embrace this Lenten season NOT as a burdensome obligation, but as a blessed opportunity to break through a mundane and finite kind of life; and commit ourselves to the freedom that only comes from following the way of the Lord.

Through the grace of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and an active Orthodox Christian way of life, we can very well look beyond the imposed “fish bowl” to behold the presence of the living God in our midst. If we will choose to break familiar routines and seek out the way of the Lord this Lenten season with prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we can indeed “swim upstream” and discover a new life. A limitless life in the Risen Christ ■

An endowment from Charles Michaels, Dayton Ohio, and donations in memory of loved ones from friends, families, and fellow church musicians allowed the Memorial Scholarship Fund to become self-sustaining. Each year at the Annual Convention we encourage and offer support to students who are developing their musical talents by awarding scholarships at the banquet. Also at the Convention, at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy during a memorial service at which the nearly 300 names of blessed memory are read, we remember those church musicians who served the Church for many years.

Donations to the Memorial Scholarship Fund can be sent to Dan Packis, MEFGOX Scholarship

Trustee Chairman, 4651 Greenview Court, Avon, Ohio 44011. Please include the name of the church musician in whose memory the contribution is made ■

THE DETROIT GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY PARADE WEEKEND FESTIVITIES

The Detroit Greek Independence Day was celebrated this year on the weekend of March 25 - 27. The festivities started Friday with a preview of the New Hellenic Museum of Michigan, located on 67 E. Kirby Street in Detroit, which is scheduled to open later this year. The evening was highlighted by the performance of the Evzones and Amalia Dance Ensembles of Pylos and Messinia, Greece.

On Saturday morning, Metropolitan Nicholas and his staff welcomed the dancers at the Metropolis Center. Later in the evening, The Hellenic Heritage Award Banquet was held at the Atheneum Suite Hotel recognizing those individuals who have distinguished themselves for their faith and the promotion of Hellenic culture in American society. The 2011 recipients are: Dr. Harry Kotsis, Dr. Mike Syropoulos, George Raptis, Ernest Zachary and Tula Georgeson. The proceeds from this Banquet were committed to the Hellenic Museum of Michigan.

The weekend festivities culminated with the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy on Sunday, followed by the traditional Greek Independence Day Parade through downtown Detroit.

Among the special guests from Greece who graciously honored us with their presence were Rev. Archimandrite Theoklitos Lambrina-kos, Mr. Demitrios Kafandaros (Mayor of Pylos) and Vefa Alexiadou (The First Lady of Greek Cuisine).

The festivities ended with a final performance of the Greek dancers from the Metropolitan Detroit area and Greece.

Since its reactivation in 2001, after an absence of more than 30 years, the Detroit Greek Independence Day Parade has continued to increase the cultural awareness of Metropolitan Detroit and showcase our Orthodox Faith, our large Greek community, and our Hellenic heritage for generations to come ■
