Christ is Born! Glorify Him!

Metropolitan Nicholas' Message...

Beloved Family in Christ,

It is with great paternal joy that I address these words to you as we prepare for the celebration of the Nativity of our Lord.

The celebration of Christmas is a unique expression of joy in the life of the Church specifically because it brings a new sense of reality and urgency to the prophetic words of Israel for the coming of the Messiah.

All of creation rejoices at the birth of God in the flesh: the heavens are ablaze with fiery stars which guide the Magi to the Christ child; the court of Herod is abuzz with the news of a 'new' King; and the shepherds hear the angelic message of "good tidings of great joy which will be to all people."

This message of God's love is so meaningful to us even now, despite every difficulty which we are facing as individuals, families, and a nation. In the midst of trying to 'save ourselves' from the loss of our home and jobs, God calls out to us to trust in this Child, this infant Christ, born in a cave.

In the midst of wondering what we should do and where we must go, God calls upon us to see this infant King, whose parents flee from their own land that He might survive Herod's wrath.

In the midst of planning how we shall amass treasures for ourselves to secure our futures, God calls upon us to gaze upon this King of Heaven and Earth, and to recognize that for our salvation He empties Himself, holding nothing but us in the palm of His hand.

The true witness of Christmas is also found in the words of St. Paul, who reminds us that "neither height nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus.

Christ is Born!
Glorify Him!

With every paternal prayer and blessing for you and yours at Christmas 2009,

Metropolitan Nicholas

(Westland, MI)

AXIOS! Fr. Teodor!

At the conclusion of the Hierarchical Divine Liturgy celebrated at the Sts. Constantine and Helen Church on Sunday, October 11, Archbishop Demetrios elevated Father Teodor Petrutiu to the rank of Ekonomos.

Fr. Teodor accepted the interim assignment to the parish in October of 2007 in order to assess the status and needs of the community for the Metropolitan. Father Teodor was formally assigned as the Proistamemos of the community in April of 2009.

In recognition of the hard work and leadership of Fr. Teodor, as well as the dedication and cooperation of the entire parish family, the Archbishop honored Fr. Teodor and the entire community through his elevation to the rank of Ekonomos.

AXIOS! AXIOS! AXIOS!

2009 CLERGY-LAITY AND PHILOPTOCHOS CONFERENCE

(Westland, MI)

The 2009 Metropolis Clergy-Laity and Philoptochos Assembly was held from October 8-10 at the Sts. Constantine and Helen parish in Westland, MI.

On the evening of October 7, prior to the formal opening of the Assembly, both the Metropolis Council and the Philoptochos Council met in preparation for the work ahead.

On Thursday, October 10, Metropolitan Nicholas opened the Assembly with his keynote address entitled: "You are the salt of the earth..."

Following the keynote address, which was given in the church proper, the Clergy-Laity and Philoptochos Assembly was formally opened. Before leaving the church for the ensuing meetings, the 160 registered delegates were anointed with unction in preparation for the serious tasks which lay ahead of them.

All of the delegates then took part in an opening seminar which further developed the practical aspects of the Conference theme of "Salt." These seminar sessions were led by Frs. Cassis, Olecnowicz, and Pathenos.

After lunch, the regular program began: educational learning sessions, Metropolis committee meetings, and the Philoptochos Assembly meetings ran concurrently.

Delegates who were not attending committee meetings or other sessions had the opportunity to attend learning sessions which were all centered around the Conference theme of salt. These learning sessions all dealt with ways in which to make our Christian witness more effective for ourselves as well as our communities.

The Metropolis Committees which met during the Assembly included: Finance, Youth, Administration, Missions and Small Parish, Religious Education, Archdiocesan Commitment, Language and Culture, and Friends of the Metropolis Committee.

The Thursday evening Grand Banquet was centered around the 10 year anniversary of Metropolitan Nicholas as the head of the Metropolis. Navy Chaplain and classmate of the Metropolitan, Captain William J. Bartz, offered the keynote 'Salute' to His Eminence. Fr. Bartz began his talk with his first encounter of His Eminence while they were students, and concluded with his present work, especially his public outreach in the American Bible Society.

His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios arrived Friday evening and participated in the Plenary Session on Saturday morning.

Vice-chair Gus Stavropoulos opened the Plenary Session and Lou Kircos was appointed as chair for the Assembly.

The Archbishop also attended the Philoptochos Conference and offered the new Board Members their affirmation of office.

This was the most well attended Clergy-Laity and Philoptochos Conference in recent history. A review of the work of the Clergy-Laity will be communicated to the parishes in the near future.

The Sts. Constantine and Helen parish was an ideal location with ample meeting rooms and spaces for the work of the delegates. All of the delegates noted the friendliness of the community, its priest Fr. Teodor Petrutiu, the Parish Council and Philoptochos, and the volunteers who helped make this event successful. Marchiori catering provided outstanding meals during the entire event.

Bravo to all!

Metropolitan Nicholas' 10th Anniversary

This year's Clergy Laity Conference, held at Sts. Constantine and Helen Church in Westland, MI, was marked by a special occasion: His Eminence Metropolitan Nicholas' 10 Year Anniversary.

Members of the clergy, Metropolitan Council, friends, relatives, faithful from all over the Metropolis were present to congratulate their spiritual shepherd. With tears in his eyes, Metropolitan Nicholas expressed his gratitude to those present, remembering also his mother for whom he had great respect. His joyful presence and smile along with his wit and great sense of humor created an unforgettable atmosphere.

For this and for the care he always has for us, we wish His Eminence Many Years in the Lord!

PHILOPTOCHOS NEWS

Eleni Zaferes - Metropolitan of Detroit Philoptochos President.

By Eleni Zaferes

The Metropolis of Detroit Philoptochos chapters joined in fellowship at the Metropolis Philoptochos Conference in conjunction with the Clergy/Laity Conference in Westland, MI October 8-10, 2009. Instructional "Back to Basics" workshops afforded the delegates an opportunity to review chapter procedures, officer responsibilities and ways to increase membership. National President Aphrodite Skeadas joined the delegates during the Conference deliberations.

Over 40 chapters were recognized for excellence in these categories: Growth and Expansion; Best Outreach and In Reach Projects; Commitments; and Cookbook Sales at the delegate's breakfast hosted by the Metropolis Philoptochos Board.

We thank Berdi Kakas, Penny Gryparis and Lisa Solon for their service to the Metropolis Board. New members are Presvytera Teri Maggos of Flint, Patricia Laddis of Muskegon, and Perry Katsikas of Ann Arbor.

The Metropolis Board will continue the celebration of the 10th Anniversary of the Enthronement of Metropolitan Nicholas by hosting its annual reception in honor of our beloved Metropolitan Nicholas' Name Day on Sunday, December 6th from 1:00- 5:00pm at the Metropolis Center. The next week receptions will follow the St. Spyridon Vesper service on December 11th and the Divine Liturgy on December 12th. We invite everyone to join in these celebrations.

We welcome the newest Philoptochos chapter in Traverse City, MI. The ladies have always assisted in the ministries of the Church and now will be working for the Mission of Philoptochos. It is this devotion that helps sustain and better the lives of others.

On behalf of the Metropolis Board members and all Philoptochos chapters, we wish everyone a joyous Christmas season and a blessed New Year.

Church musicians from the Metropolis of Detroit, along with their sister singers and chanters from the Metropolis of Pittsburgh, gathered at Saints Constantine and Helen in Westland on July 16-18, 2009, for the 62nd Annual Conference of the Mid-Eastern

MEFGOX NEWS

Federation of Greek Orthodox Church Musicians. The four-day event featured a Church Music Institute and workshops on Orthodox Hymnology, teaching children hymns, and basics for singing. Federation President Irene Georgantas welcomed the participants and gave a report of accomplishments of the previous year which included launching a website.

At the Grand Banquet, four young adults were awarded scholarships. Mr. Dan Packis, Chairman of the Trustees of the Memorial Scholarship Foundation, was awarded the National Forum's Patriarch Athenagoras Medal for Distinguished Diocesan Service.

The culmination of the conference came on Sunday. A group of seventeen singers chanted the Orthros, led by their instructor Nancy Takis. A choir of over 100 singers under the direction of Maritsa Kalasz sang the English arrangement of the Divine Liturgy composed by George Raptis. It was a very moving celebration of the Divine Liturgy with Metropolitan Maximos and Metropolitan Nicholas co-celebrating Fathers Dean Hountalas, Nicolaos Kotsis, and Teodor Petrutiu.

The weekend was a time of fellowship, learning, worship and prayer with, the hard-working host choir and their conference chairmen Alex Skylakos and Connie Bogdanos. For more details (and pictures!) about the Federation and the conference, please visit our newly constructed website at:

KENYA AND RUSSIA: TWO DIFFERENT CULTURES, ONE FAMILY IN CHRIST

By Eva Kokinos, Director
Office of Youth and Young Adult Ministries

With the blessings of His Eminence Metropolitan Nicholas, and the generosity of the faithful of this Metropolis, I traveled to two countries where was able to see Orthodox Christianity through the eyes of two distinct cultures. These two trips gave me some of the most profound experiences of my life. One was a trip to Kenya for an OCMC (Orthodox Christian Missions Center) teaching mission trip in January 2009. The other was a young adult pilgrimage to Moscow and St. Petersburg in April 2009.

It was an honor to be invited to participate in an OCMC mission. Our mission trip was from December 29, 2008 -January 12, 2009. Our team was hosted by His Eminence Archbishop Makarios at the St. Makarios Orthodox Seminary in Nairobi. The goal of our mission was to teach the youth and catechumens about Orthodox Christian faith. In addition, we provided teaching tools and ideas for the Kenyan youth workers and Sunday School teachers. Most importantly, our mission was to share the love of Christ with everyone we encountered... helping in any way we could.

The trip, the people, the culture, and the faith I witnessed were simply unforgettable. I was able to spend time teaching and playing with beautiful children at the St. Makarios Orphanage. We visited villages and worshipped with the locals. It is hard to deny or ignore the poverty and disease that affects Kenya. Our Kenyan brothers and sisters in Christ lack in material wealth. However, the wealth of deep faith and true joy that flowed from the people during the Divine Liturgy was unparalleled. And it is a wealth that I carry with me for the rest of my life.

In April 2009, I encountered Orthodoxy in a completely different setting.... Russia. Right after Pascha, from April 25-May 1, 2009, I joined 24 other young adults on a pilgrimage through the largest Orthodox Christian country in the world.

Our trip began in Moscow... We visited well-known historical sites such as Red Square, the Kremlin, Lenin's Tomb, and the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. We attended a Patriarchal Divine Liturgy at the Cathedral of Christ the Savior. One of the highlights of our trip was to receive a blessing from Patriarch Kirill, the Patriarch of Moscow and all of Russia. We also visited one of the most recognizable Russian Orthodox churches, St. Basil's Cathedral. We completed our trip by visiting the Holy Trinity/St. Sergius Monastery, where we venerated the relics of St. Sergius, St. Innocent of Alaska, and St. Maximos the Greek.

St. Petersburg was just as incredible. Among the many beautiful churches we visited, we saw Cathedral of Our Lady of Kazan, St. Isaac's Cathedral, and the Church of the Resurrection (also known as the Savior on Spilled Blood). The Church of the Resurrection is decorated with 7,500 square meters of mosaic iconography. The most notable historical sight we visited in St. Petersburg was the State Hermitage Museum, holding more than three million works of art and artifacts.

Out of all the sites and beautiful churches we were able to visit in Russia, something stands out in my mind. People's faces changed when we would switch from speaking English to say "Christos Voskrese" (Christ is Risen). Most locals did not expect that from us, but it instantly connected us with anyone we encountered. While in Moscow, we were greeted by a woman who was a volunteer at one of the area churches. When she heard we were a group of Orthodox Christians from the U.S. visiting specifically to see the religious sites in the area, her eyes filled with tears. When we asked our tour guide why she was crying, she said that she was filled with joy that people could now "come to our country and be free to visit because of Orthodoxy."

I am truly grateful to have these experiences from Kenya and Russia in my mind and heart forever. Although Russia, Kenya, and the U.S. face different cultural, political, and social challenges, the Good News of the Holy Gospel is the same. Ultimately, it binds us together as one family in Christ. As the Youth Director of our beloved Metropolis, I look forward to sharing these memories with our young people for years to come.
